

Which language courses can you attend?

We offer German courses especially for migrants, called integration courses.

You learn from A1 to B1.

In addition to learning the German language, the courses cover everyday topics, job hunting, history and politics in Germany.

Who can take part?

Everyone is welcome! You can register for a course at any time as a self-payer, or you have received a commitment or authorisation from the job centre or BAMF.

With an authorisation or obligation, the course can be free of charge for you.

How long does a course last?

Our courses consist of six language course modules and one orientation course module and take you from A1 to B1. Each module lasts around 4 weeks. You can attend the entire course or individual modules.

You will have 25 hours of lessons per week, Monday to Friday mornings (8.30 - 12.45) or afternoons (13.30 - 17.45).

I would like to apply for a preparatory study visa. Are these German courses accepted?

The decision on the visa is made by the immigration office. As our courses are full-time (25 hours per week), they have been accepted so far.

How can I register?

Come to our office hours:

Monday and Wednesday 10 am - 3 pm

to our office at Heinrichstraße 5-7.

Please bring with you:

- Your identity card with residence permit
- If available, a notice of approval (e.g. from the job centre), a certificate of entitlement or obligation

If available: The result of a placement test. However, we can also do this on site.

What does the course cost?

The costs depend on your status:

Self-paying courses = €400 per module

Participants with a certificate of eligibility with cost exemption = €0

Participants with a certificate of eligibility without cost exemption = €229 per module

You can apply for a certificate of eligibility if you receive benefits such as unemployment benefit or housing benefit.

You can find out more about eligibility on the BAMF website.

We will be happy to advise you and help you with the application.
